

TOWN OF PORT MCNEILL
BYLAW NO. 662, 2016

Being a bylaw of the Town of Port McNeill hereafter referred to as the “Town of Port McNeill Volunteer Fire Department Bylaw” to provide for the establishment and operation of a volunteer fire department.

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Town of Port McNeill in open meeting assembled enacts as follows:

1. TITLE

- 1.1 This bylaw may be cited as “Town of Port McNeill Volunteer Fire Department Bylaw 662, 2016.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 In this bylaw:

Administrator means the Chief Administrative Officer of the Town of Port McNeill or their designate.

Apparatus means any vehicle provided with machinery, devices, equipment or materials for fire protection and assistance response as well as vehicles used to transport fire fighters or supplies;

Assistance Response means:

- a) first response to medical emergencies;
- b) first response to accidents, natural or man-made disasters, escapes of hazardous materials or other circumstances that have caused or may cause harm to persons or property; or
- c) rescue operations.

Council means the Council of the Town of Port McNeill;

Equipment means any tools, contrivances, devices or materials used by the Fire Department to combat an incident or other emergency;

Fire Chief means the head or manager of the Fire Department appointed by the Administrator;

Fire Department means the Port McNeill Volunteer Fire/Rescue Department including all officers and members engaged in the department;

Fire Protection means all aspects of fire safety, including but not limited to fire prevention, firefighting or suppression, pre-fire planning, fire investigation, training and other member development;

Incident means a fire or a situation where a fire or an explosion is imminent or a situation where a hazard to persons or property exists;

Member or worker means a person appointed to the Fire Department other than the Fire Chief or an Officer;

Mutual Aid means the provision of the Fire Department's services to another local government or form of government or a person pursuant to a mutual aid agreement between the Town and that government or person;

Officer or Supervisor means a member appointed by the Fire Chief and given specific authority to assist the Fire Chief in his/her duties.

2.2 All other words and phrases shall be construed in accordance with the meaning assigned to them by the British Columbia Building Code, the British Columbia Fire Code or the Fire Services Act as amended or re-enacted from time to time. In the event of a conflict between this bylaw and the Fire Services Act and any regulations thereunder, the provisions of the Act and its regulations shall prevail.

3. Establishment

3.1 The Fire Department is hereby established and is to be known as the Port McNeill Fire/Rescue Department.

4. Administration

4.1 In addition to the Fire Chief, the Fire Department personnel shall consist of a Deputy Fire Chief and such number of other officers and members as from time to time may be deemed necessary by the Fire Chief.

4.2 The Deputy Fire Chief shall be appointed by the Fire Chief.

4.3 Officers shall be appointed by the Fire Chief after recommendation from one or more selection committees established by the Fire Chief for that purpose. Members of the Fire Department shall be appointed by the Fire Chief after recommendation of the Deputy Chief in consultation with the Officers.

4.4 The Fire Chief may appoint, discipline and dismiss Members in accordance with the Port McNeill Fire/Rescue Department Policy, Operational Guidelines, and Procedures.
