Town Log 2023

Remembrance Day

Port McNeill Royal Canadian Legion Branch 281, Remembrance Day parade and cenotaph ceremony will be conducted at the Port McNeill Rotary Park cenotaph on Saturday November 11 at 10:30 -11:30, rain or shine. There will be a poppy sales campaign where you will see members of the Legion at retail outlets in Port McNeill on Saturday October 28 and Saturday November 4. You will be able to make your donation and get a personal poppy. Businesses in Port McNeill will have Legion Poppy trays available for easy access.

This year, you will have the option to use your debit or credit card to tap and pay your poppy donations at two locations in Port McNeill. There is a community parade starting at 10:25 from the Legion Hall, where you can see members of Canada's military, RCMP, First Responders, and service clubs marching to the cenotaph. After the cenotaph service, the Legion hall will be open for the public to enjoy a warm lunch and beverages. You are welcome to stop by the cenotaph anytime after the ceremony is over on November 11 to pay your respects and place your personal poppy on the cross.
